THE ADVISORS' INNER CIRCLE FUND EDGEWOOD GROWTH FUND
OCTOBER 31, 2019
(Unaudited)

Dear Shareholder,

Your fund appreciated by +16.43% (Institutional shares) and +15.96% (Retail shares) over the trailing twelve months ending October 31, 2019. The S&P 500 Growth Index appreciated by +14.28% and the S&P 500 Index by +14.33% in the same period of time. For the six month period ending October 31, 2019, the Fund's performance was +3.44% (Institutional shares) and +3.26% (Retail shares). In the same six month period, the S&P 500 Growth Index appreciated by +3.05% and the S&P 500 Index by +4.16%.

Over the last twelve months, the top five portfolio contributors were Equinix Inc., American Tower Corp., Visa Inc., S&P Global Inc., and PayPal Holdings Inc. In our view, both Equinix and American Tower are vital sources of technology infrastructure that continue to benefit from the explosion in data traffic. Additionally, declining interest rate expectations in 2019 have also been a boon for these REIT stocks. S&P Global has similarly been helped by declining interest rates, which have driven a recovery in bond issuance volumes. Visa's momentum stems from the continued growth of electronic payments globally, a rapid pace of product innovation and partnerships. Electronic payments remains one of the fastest evolving marketplaces we know of, and Visa has a dominant share which we think should grow. The trends driving Visa's business are similar to what drives PayPal. In the past year, PayPal has continued to grow volume at a blistering pace, driven in part by Venmo, and the company has also expanded geographically through partnerships and the acquisition of iZettle. As is the case with Visa, we believe global electronic payments will also drive this industry-leading company for the long term.

The top five detractors over the last twelve months were Cognizant Technology Solutions Corp., Charles Schwab Corp., Allergan PLC, Intuit Inc. and Illumina Inc. We sold Cognizant because the business was slowing as a result of shrinking budgets in the financial services and healthcare industries. We sold Charles Schwab somewhat reluctantly because we expect that the interest rate and economic activity levels will not be what we expected a year ago. The company is exceptionally well managed and has bright prospects, but will likely face headwinds for the foreseeable future with interest rates at historic lows. We sold Allergan after repeated management disappointments. Illumina is often one of our better performers, but sometimes they will miss estimates or the market will turn bearish for a time. We could not be more optimistic about the long-term potential for gene sequencing and the explosion of sequencing usage. We also have confidence that management will keep the company at the forefront of this important market, and we remain enthusiastic shareholders. We would note that this stock will continue to be a bit volatile. But again, we believe the long-term prospects more than outweigh short-term volatility. Intuit is a new holding and we believe in the company's transition to a software platform business model serving individuals and the fast growing self-employed through QuickBooks.

We continue to think the U.S. economy is in pretty good shape. Certainly not as strong as 2018, but not bad either. Currently, some industries are doing better than others, but the companies in your portfolio just posted another solid growth quarter. It goes without saying that we monitor trade negotiations, the political atmosphere, as well as the many other factors that could affect the equity portfolio. But generally speaking, we remain cautiously optimistic.

Sincerely,

Edgewood Management LLC

- (2) The graph is based on only the Institutional Shares; performance for Retail Shares would be different due to differences in fee structures.

The performance data quoted herein represents past performance and the return and value of an investment in the Fund will fluctuate so that, when redeemed, may be worth less than its original cost.

Past performance is no guarantee of future performance and should not be considered as a representation of the future results of the Fund. The Fund's performance assumes the reinvestment of all dividends and all capital gains. Index returns assume reinvestment of dividends and, unlike a Fund's returns, do not reflect any fees or expenses. If such fees and expenses were included in the index returns, the performance would have been lower.

Please note that one cannot invest directly in an unmanaged index.

There are no assurances that the Fund will meet its stated objectives. The Fund's holdings and allocations are subject to change because it is actively managed and should not be considered recommendations to buy individual securities.

Returns shown do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund distributions or the redemption of Fund shares.

The following are significant accounting policies, which are consistently followed in the preparation of the financial statements of the Fund. The Fund is an investment company that applies the accounting and reporting guidance issued in Topic 946 by the U.S. Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB").

Use of Estimates — The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("U.S. GAAP") requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the fair value of assets, the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of increases and decreases in net assets from operations during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates and such differences could be material.

Security Valuation — Securities listed on a securities exchange, market or automated quotation system for which quotations are readily available (except for securities traded on NASDAQ), including securities traded over the counter, are valued at the last quoted sale price on an exchange or market (foreign or domestic) on which they are traded on the valuation date (or at approximately 4:00 pm ET if a security's primary exchange is normally open at that time), or, if there is no such reported sale, at the most recent quoted bid price. For securities traded on NASDAQ, the NASDAQ Official Closing Price will be used. If available, debt securities are priced based upon valuations provided by independent, third-party pricing agents. Such values generally reflect the last reported sales price if the security is actively traded. The third-party pricing agents may also value debt securities at an evaluated bid price by employing methodologies that utilize actual market transactions, broker-supplied valuations, or other methodologies designed to identify the market value for such securities. Such methodologies generally consider such factors as security prices, yields, maturities, call features, ratings and developments relating to specific securities in arriving at valuations. On the first day a new debt security purchase is recorded, if a price is not available on the automated pricing feeds from our primary and secondary pricing vendors nor is it available from an independent broker, the security may be valued at its purchase price. Each day thereafter, the debt security will be valued according to the Fund's Fair Value Procedures until an independent source can be secured.

All investment companies held in the Fund's portfolio are valued at the published net asset value.

Securities for which market prices are not "readily available" are valued in accordance with Fair Value Procedures established by the Fund's Board of Trustees (the "Board"). The Fund's Fair Value Procedures are implemented through a Fair Value Committee (the "Committee") designated by the Board. Some of the more common reasons that may necessitate that a security be valued using Fair Value Procedures include: the security's trading has been halted or suspended; the security has been de-listed from a national exchange; the security's primary trading market is temporarily closed at a time when under normal conditions it would be open; the security has not been traded for an extended period of time; the security's primary pricing source is not able or willing to provide a price; or trading of the security is subject to local government-imposed restrictions. When a security is valued in accordance with the Fair Value Procedures, the Committee will determine the value after taking into consideration relevant information reasonably available to the Committee. As of October 31, 2019, there were no securities valued in accordance with the Fair Value Procedures.

In accordance with the authoritative guidance on fair value measurements and disclosure under U.S. GAAP, the Fund discloses fair value of its investments in a hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure the fair value. The objective of a fair value measurement is to determine the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (an exit price). Accordingly, the fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

- Level 1 — Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical, unrestricted assets or liabilities that the Fund has the ability to access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 — Other significant observable inputs (includes quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speed, credit risk, referenced indices, quoted prices in inactive markets, adjusted quoted prices in active markets, etc.); and
- Level 3 — Prices, inputs or proprietary modeling techniques which are both significant to the fair value measurement and unobservable (supported by little or no market activity).

Investments are classified within the level of the lowest significant input considered in determining fair value. Investments classified within Level 3 whose fair value measurement considers several inputs may include Level 1 or Level 2 inputs as components of the overall fair value measurement.

For the year ended October 31, 2019, there have been no significant changes to the Fund's fair value methodologies.

Security Transactions and Investment Income — Security transactions are accounted for on trade date for financial reporting purposes. Costs used in determining realized gains and losses on the sale of investment securities are based on the specific identification method. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Interest income is recognized on the accrual basis.

Investments in REITs — With respect to the Fund, dividend income is recorded based on the income included in distributions received from the REIT investments using published REIT reclassifications including some management estimates when actual amounts are not available. Distributions received in excess of this estimated amount are recorded as a reduction of the cost of investments or reclassified to capital gains. The actual amounts of income, return of capital, and capital gains are only determined by each REIT after its fiscal year-end, and may differ from the estimated amounts.

Repurchase Agreements — The Fund may invest in tri-party repurchase agreements. Securities held as collateral for tri-party repurchase agreements are maintained in a segregated account by the broker's custodian bank. Provisions of the repurchase agreements require that the market value of the collateral, including accrued interest thereon, is sufficient in the event of default of the counterparty. Such collateral will be cash, debt securities issued or guaranteed by the U.S. Government, securities that at the time of the repurchase agreement is entered into are rated in the highest category by a nationally recognized statistical rating organization (“NRSRO”) or unrated securities that are of comparable quality to securities that at rated in the highest category by an NRSRO, as determined by the Adviser. If the counterparty defaults and the value of the collateral declines or if the counterparty enters into an insolvency proceeding, realization and/or retention of the collateral by the Fund may be delayed or limited. As of October 31, 2019, the Fund did not have any open repurchase agreements.

Federal Income Taxes — It is the Fund’s intention to continue to qualify as a regulated investment company for Federal income tax purposes by complying with the appropriate provisions of Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and to distribute substantially all of its income to its shareholders. Accordingly, no provision for Federal income taxes has been made in the financial statements.

The Fund evaluates tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Fund’s tax returns to determine whether it is “more-likely-than-not” (i.e., greater than 50-percent) that each tax position will be sustained upon examination by a taxing authority based on the technical merits of the position. Tax positions not deemed to meet the more-likely-than-not threshold are recorded as a tax benefit or expense in the current year. The Fund did not record any tax provision in the current period. However, management’s conclusions regarding tax positions taken may be subject to review and adjustment at a later date based on factors including, but not limited to, examination by tax authorities (i.e., the last 3 open tax year ends, as applicable), on-going analysis of and changes to tax laws, regulations and interpretations thereof.

As of and during the year ended October 31, 2019, the Fund did not have a liability for any interest or penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits. The Fund recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense in the Statement of Operations. During the year ended October 31, 2019, the Fund did not incur any interest or penalties.

Expenses — Expenses that are directly related to the Fund are charged to the Fund. Other operating expenses of the Trust are prorated to the funds based on the number of funds and/or relative daily net assets.

Classes — Class specific expenses are borne by that class of shares. Income, realized and unrealized gains/losses, and non-class specific expenses are allocated to the respective class on the basis of relative daily net assets.

Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders — Dividends from net investment income and distributions from net realized capital gains, if any, are declared and paid annually by the Fund.

3. Transactions with Affiliates:

Certain officers of the Trust are also employees of SEI Investments Global Funds Services (the “Administrator”), a wholly owned subsidiary of SEI Investments Company, and/or SEI Investments Distribution Co. (the “Distributor”). Such officers are paid no fees by the Trust, other than the Chief Compliance Officer (“CCO”) as described below, for serving as officers of the Trust.

A portion of the services provided by the CCO and his staff, whom are employees of the Administrator, are paid for by the Trust as incurred. The services include regulatory oversight of the Trust’s Advisors and service providers as required by SEC regulations. The CCO’s services have been approved by and are reviewed by the Board.

4. Administration, Distribution, Shareholder Servicing, Transfer Agent and Custodian Agreements:

The Fund and the Administrator are parties to an Administration Agreement under which the Administrator provides administrative services to the Fund. For these services, the Administrator is paid an asset-based fee, which will vary depending on the number of share classes and the average daily net assets of the Fund. For the year ended October 31, 2019, the Fund paid $4,040,069 for these services.

The Fund has adopted the Distribution Plan (the “Plan”) for the Retail Shares. Under the Plan, the Distributor, or third parties that enter into agreements with the Distributor, may receive up to 0.25% of the Fund’s average daily net assets attributable to Retail Shares as compensation for distribution services. The Distributor will not receive any compensation for the distribution of Institutional Shares of the Fund.

The Fund has entered into shareholder servicing agreements with third-party service providers pursuant to which the service providers provide certain shareholder services to Fund shareholders (the “Service Plan”) for the Retail Shares. Under the Service Plan, the Fund may pay service providers a fee at a rate of up to 0.25% annually of the average daily net assets attributable to Retail Shares, subject to the arrangement for provision of shareholder and administrative services. For the year ended October 31, 2019, the Fund’s Retail Shares incurred $633,905 of shareholder servicing fees, an effective rate of 0.15%.

DST Systems, Inc. serves as the transfer agent and dividend disbursing agent for the Fund under a transfer agency agreement with the Trust. For the year ended October 31, 2019, the Fund earned cash management credits of $201,989 which were used to offset transfer agent expenses. This amount is listed as “Fees Paid Indirectly” on the Statement of Operations.

U.S. Bank, N.A. acts as custodian (the “Custodian”) for the Fund. The Custodian plays no role in determining the investment policies of the Fund or which securities are to be purchased or sold by the Fund.

5. Investment Advisory Agreement:

Under the terms of an investment advisory agreement, Edgewood Management LLC (the “Adviser”) provides investment advisory services to the Fund at a fee, which is calculated daily and paid monthly at an annual rate of 1.00% of the Fund’s average daily net assets. The Adviser has contractually agreed to waive fees and reimburse expenses to the extent necessary to keep the Institutional Shares’ total annual operating expenses (excluding interest, taxes, brokerage commissions, acquired fund fees and expenses, and extraordinary expenses) from exceeding an amount equal to the management fees payable to the Adviser through February 28, 2020. The Adviser has contractually agreed to waive fees and reimburse expenses to the extent necessary to keep the Retail Shares’ total annual operating expenses (excluding interest, taxes, brokerage commissions, acquired fund fees and expenses, and extraordinary expenses) to an amount equal to the sum of the management fees, and, to the extent incurred, distribution (12b-1) fees and shareholder servicing fees, until February 28, 2020. In addition, the Adviser may receive from the Fund the difference between the Total Annual Fund Operating Expenses (not including excluded expenses) and the contractual expense limit to recoup all or a portion of its prior fee waivers or expense reimbursements made during the three-year period preceding the recoupment if at any point Total Annual Fund Operating Expenses (not including excluded expenses) are below the contractual expense limit (i) at the time of the fee waiver and/or expense reimbursement and (ii) at the time of the recoupment. At October 31, 2019, there were no previously waived and reimbursed fees subject to recoupment.

8. Federal Tax Information:

The amount and character of income and capital gain distributions to be paid, if any, are determined in accordance with Federal income tax regulations, which may differ from U.S. GAAP. As a result, net investment income (loss) and net realized gain (loss) on investment transactions for a reporting period may differ significantly from distributions during such period. These book/tax differences may be temporary or permanent. To the extent these differences are permanent in nature, they are charged or credited to distributable earnings or paid-in capital, as appropriate, in the period that the differences arise.

Accordingly, the following permanent differences that are primarily attributable to equalization have been reclassified to (from) the following accounts:

Paid-in Capital	Distributable Earnings(Loss)
$42,695	$(42,695)

The tax character of dividends and distributions declared during the fiscal year ended October 31, 2019 and 2018 were as follows:

	Ordinary Income	Long-Term Capital Gain	Total
2019	$53,085,171	$519,503,487	$572,588,658
2018	$75,054,714	$68,170,662	$143,225,367

As of October 31, 2019, the components of Distributable Earnings on a tax basis were as follows:

Undistributed Long-Term Capital Gain	$	48,232,688
Late Year Ordinary Loss		(41,142,981)
Other Temporary Differences		3
Unrealized Appreciation		6,857,599,932
Total Net Distributable Earnings	$	6,864,689,642

Late Year Ordinary Loss represent ordinary losses realized on investment transactions from January 1, 2019 through October 31, 2019, that, in accordance with Federal income tax regulations, the Fund defers and treats as having arisen in the following fiscal year.

The Federal tax cost and aggregate gross unrealized appreciation and depreciation on investments held by the Fund at October 31, 2019 were as follows:

Federal Tax Cost	Aggregate Gross Unrealized Appreciation	Aggregate Gross Unrealized Depreciation	Net Unrealized Appreciation
$8,943,873,258	$6,948,271,604	$(90,671,672)	$6,857,599,932

9. Concentration/Risks:

The Fund's investment strategy often results in a core group of stocks of companies that it believes hold the most growth potential. As a result, poor performance or adverse economic events affecting one or more of these companies could have a greater impact on the Fund than it would on another mutual fund with a broader range of investments.

Equity Risk – Since it purchases equity securities, the Fund is subject to the risk that stock prices will fall over short or extended periods of time. Historically, the equity markets have moved in cycles, and the value of the Fund's equity securities may fluctuate drastically from day-to-day. Individual companies may report poor results or be negatively affected by industry and/or economic trends and developments. The prices of securities issued by such companies may suffer a decline in response. These factors contribute to price volatility, which is the principal risk of investing in the Fund.

Non-Diversification Risk – The Fund is non-diversified and its investment strategy often results in a core group of stocks of companies that it believes hold the most growth potential. As a result, poor performance or adverse economic events affecting one or more of these companies could have a greater impact on the Fund than it would on another mutual fund with a broader range of investments.

Small- and Medium-Capitalization Company Risk – To the extent that the Fund invests in small- and medium-capitalization companies, the Fund may be subject to additional risk. The small- and medium-capitalization companies in which the Fund may invest may be more vulnerable to adverse business or economic events than larger, more established companies. In particular, investments in these small and mid-sized companies may pose additional risks, including liquidity risk, because these companies tend to have limited product lines, markets and financial resources, and may depend upon a relatively small management group. Therefore, small and mid-cap stocks may be more volatile than those of larger companies. These securities may be traded over-the-counter or listed on an exchange.

Foreign Company Risk – When the Fund invests in foreign securities, it will be subject to risks not typically associated with domestic securities. Although American Depositary Receipts (“ADRs”) are an alternative to directly purchasing the underlying foreign securities in their national markets and currencies, they are also subject to many of the risks associated with investing directly in foreign securities. Foreign investments can be riskier and more volatile than investments in the United States. Adverse political and economic developments or changes in the value of foreign currency can make it difficult for the Fund to sell its securities and could reduce the value of your shares. Securities of foreign companies may not be registered with the SEC and foreign companies are generally not subject to the regulatory controls imposed on U.S. issuers and, as a consequence, there is generally less publically available information about foreign securities than is available about domestic securities. Income from foreign securities owned by the Fund may be reduced by a withholding tax at the source, which tax would reduce income received from the securities comprising the portfolio. Foreign securities may also be more difficult to value than securities of U.S. issuers.

Investment Style Risk – The Fund pursues a “growth style” of investing, meaning that the Fund invests in equity securities of companies that the Adviser believes will have above-average rates of earnings growth and which, therefore, may experience above-average increases in stock prices. Over time, a growth investing style may go in and out of favor, causing the Fund to sometimes underperform other equity funds that use differing investing styles.

Cyber Security Risk – The Fund and its service providers may be susceptible to operational and information security risks resulting from a breach in cyber security, including cyber-attacks. Cyber-attacks may interfere with the processing of shareholder transactions, impact the Fund’s ability to calculate its net asset value, cause the release of private shareholder information or confidential company information, impede redemptions, subject the Fund to regulatory fines or financial losses, and cause reputational damage. Similar types of cyber security risks are also present for issuers of securities in which the Fund invests.

10. Loans of Portfolio Securities:

The Fund may lend portfolio securities having a market value up to one-third of the Fund’s total assets. Such loans are secured by collateral equal to no less than the market value of the loaned securities determined daily. Such collateral will be cash or debt securities issued or guaranteed by the U.S. Government or any agencies. Cash collateral received in connection with these loans is invested in short-term instruments. As of October 31, 2019, the market value of the collateral received is $331,051,199 which is comprised of debt securities as mentioned above and valued using the previous day’s closing price in accordance with the lending relationship’s operating procedures. It is the Fund’s policy to obtain additional collateral from or return excess collateral to the borrower by the end of the next business day, following the valuation date of the securities loaned. Therefore, the value of the collateral held may be temporarily less than the value of the securities on loan. The securities lending agent (BNP Paribas Securities Services) and the Fund pay interest in the form of a premium with the remainder being retained by the Fund. The Fund records securities lending income net of such allocations. Lending securities entails a risk of loss to the Fund if and to the extent that the market value of the securities loans were to increase and the borrower did not increase the collateral accordingly, and the borrower fails to return the securities. The Fund could also experience delays and costs in gaining access to the collateral. The Fund bears the risk of any deficiency in the amount of the collateral available for return to the borrower due to any loss on the collateral invested. In the event of default, the Fund may use the collateral received to offset the position on the loan not returned by the borrower. As of October 31, 2019, the Fund had securities on loan with a market value of $324,438,408.

11. Other:

At October 31, 2019, 30% of Institutional and 70% of Retail total shares outstanding were held by 2 and 3 record shareholders, respectively, each owning 10% or greater of the aggregate total shares outstanding. These shareholders were comprised of omnibus accounts that were held on behalf of various individual shareholders.

In the normal course of business, the Fund enters into contracts that provide general indemnifications. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is dependent on future claims that may be made against the Fund and, therefore, cannot be established; however, based on experience, the risk of loss from such claim is considered remote.

12. Regulatory Matters:

On August 17, 2018, the SEC adopted amendments to Regulation S-X. These changes are effective for periods after November 5, 2018. The updates to Registered Investment Companies were mainly focused on simplifying the presentation of distributable earnings by eliminating the need to present the components of distributable earnings on a book basis in the Statement of Assets & Liabilities. The update also impacted the presentation of undistributed net investment income and distribution to shareholders on the Statement of Changes in Net Assets. The amounts presented in the current Statement of Changes in Net Assets represent the aggregated total distributions of net investment income and realized capital gains, except for distributions classified as return of capital which are still presented separately.

13. New Accounting Pronouncement:

In August 2018, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2018-13, Fair Value Measurement (Topic 820). The new guidance includes additions and modifications to disclosures requirements for fair value measurements. For public entities, the amendments are effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019, and interim periods within those fiscal years. Management elected to early adopt the removal of certain disclosures and modifications delay the adoption of additional disclosures until the effective date.

14. Subsequent Events:

The Fund has evaluated the need for additional disclosures and/or adjustments resulting from subsequent events through the date the financial statements were issued. Based on this evaluation, no additional disclosures and/or adjustments were required to the financial statements.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Trustees of The Advisors' Inner Circle Fund and Shareholders of Edgewood Growth Fund

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities of Edgewood Growth Fund (the "Fund") (one of the series constituting The Advisors' Inner Circle Fund (the "Trust")), including the schedule of investments, as of October 31, 2019, and the related statement of operations for the year then ended, the statements of changes in net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Fund (one of the series constituting The Advisors' Inner Circle Fund) at October 31, 2019, the results of its operations for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended and its financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

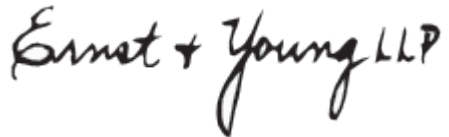

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Trust's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Fund's financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Trust in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Trust is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of the Trust's internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audits, we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Trust's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of October 31, 2019, by correspondence with the custodian and brokers or by other appropriate auditing procedures where replies from brokers were not received. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

DISCLOSURE OF FUND EXPENSES (Unaudited)

We believe it is important for you to understand the impact of fees regarding your investment. All mutual funds have operating expenses. As a shareholder of a mutual fund, you incur ongoing costs, which include costs for fund management, administrative services, and shareholder reports (like this one), among others. Operating expenses, which are deducted from a mutual fund's gross income, directly reduce the investment return of a mutual fund. A mutual fund's expenses are expressed as a percentage of its average net assets. This figure is known as the expense ratio. The following examples are intended to help you understand the ongoing fees (in dollars) of investing in your Fund and to compare these costs with those of other mutual funds. The examples are based on an investment of $1,000 made at the beginning of the period shown and held for the entire period (May 1, 2019 to October 31, 2019).

The table on the next page illustrates your Fund's costs in two ways.

- Actual fund return. This section helps you to estimate the actual expenses after fee waivers that you paid over the period. The "Ending Account Value" shown is derived from the Fund's actual return, and the fourth column shows the dollar amount that would have been paid by an investor who started with $1,000 in the Fund. You may use the information here, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. To do so, simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number given for your Fund under the heading "Expenses Paid During Period."
- Hypothetical 5% return. This section is intended to help you compare your Fund's costs with those of other mutual funds. It assumes that the Fund had a return of 5% before expenses during the period, but that the expense ratio is unchanged. In this case, because the return used is not the Fund's actual return, the results do not apply to your investment. The example is useful in making comparisons because the SEC requires all mutual funds to calculate expenses based on a 5% return. You can assess your Fund's costs by comparing this hypothetical example with the hypothetical examples that appear in shareholder reports of other mutual funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight and help you compare ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs such as sales charges (loads), and redemption fees, which are described in the Prospectus. If this fee were applied to your account, your costs would be higher.
